

Alternative Spring Break Application

The Centenary University Alternative Spring Break program engages students to connect with their community via education, service, and advocacy.

Accepted student participants gain skills and awareness through in-depth community outreach and service around a specific topic and engage with the issue alongside our community partners. Selected students are required to attend two 1hr. preparation meetings arranged by their leader before their service trip.

PART II

200-word limit per question

Please tell us how others would describe your engagement in a group setting:

What roles/functions do you typically take on in a group?

What do you find challenging about engaging in a team?

What makes you want to be part of the service program?

What opportunities for personal growth do you see in the service program?

What challenges (if any) would you face if selected to participate? Please state if financial hardship is a factor.
