

Earn Your Master of EDUCATION

in Educational Practice

with our 30 Credit Online Asynchronous Program

Imagine your Future U with an online master's degree from Centenary that works with your busy schedule. Your master's degree can offer you the advanced career path options and recognition you deserve. You must be a current teacher in order to apply to this program.

Enroll for Fall, Spring, or Summer!

Program Highlights

- 30 credit master's degree
- Complete in 2 ½ years or less!
- 8-week, accelerated courses completed online
- All coursework completed asynchronously online
- Professional and alumni discounts available
- Cohort-based program (enroll solo or w/colleagues)
- Team-based projects
- Pathway to Supervisor Certificate available
- Earn optional Teacher Leader Endorsement

Program Advantages

- Project-based activities, techniques, and strategies you can immediately use in your classroom
- Increase student achievement by learning the most up-to-date, research-based best practices
- Highly qualified faculty
- Enjoy a supportive learning environment with advisors available to you on evenings and weekends
- Outstanding networking opportunities!
- Personal, professional and financial growth as you earn your degree!

Questions? Contact:

Program Director:

Dr. William Carpluk

William.Carpluk@CentenaryUniversity.edu

Assistant Director for Graduate Enrollment:

Simona Scalisi

Simona.Scalisi@CentenaryUniversity.edu

centu.org/m-ed-24flyer

