

Spring into Joyful Literacy Instruction

Research-based best practices to invigorate your literacy instruction and enhance student motivation.

Sponsored by: Centenary University School of Education and Humanities Master of Education in Literacy Instruction Program

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Kenneth Kunz

Board President,
International Literacy Association

Dr. Kenneth Kunz is the Founder/Director of For the Love of Literacy and is a literacy teacher-leader, author, and consultant. He is the Board President of the International Literacy Association and actively serves on the Board of Directors for Little Free Library, New Jersey Literacy Association, and Learning Ally.

Dr. Kenneth Kunz received his bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and English from Kean University and received recognition as an outstanding teacher through the New Jersey Governor's Teacher Recognition Program. In 2014, Dr. Kunz received the Edward Fry Endowed Fellowship in Literacy at Rutgers University. Passionate about literacy instruction, Dr. Kunz holds a master's degree in Reading Specialization and a doctorate in Teacher Leadership from Rutgers University. He has presented professional development centered on literacy instruction in classrooms across New Jersey and at both state, national, and international conferences.

He is co-author of Breaking through the Language Arts Block: Organizing and Managing an Exemplary Literacy Day, Literacy Changemakers, and The Early Leader's Guide to Early Childhood Settings.

- Date: Friday, April 21, 2023, 8:30 am to 3:00 pm
Location: The Lackland Center at Centenary University
715 Grand Avenue, Hackettstown, 07840
Cost: $99
Questions? Contact Lexis.McCoy@CentenaryUniversity.edu
Register: centu.org/joyful-01
or scan QR code below
NOTE: Registration is on a first come, first served basis and will close when capacity is reached.

- Informative and Engaging Breakout Sessions
- Earn Professional Development Hours
- Buffet Lunch Included

